The BATTLE CALL of ALLIANCE

Music by Reginald de Koven

Awake! Awake! The winds of dawn Blow fire across the world; The ships go forth where dangers spawn And coils of death are curled; And souls of men go forth with them And hearts of men aspire, New kindled by the ancient flame Of man's importal fire. Words by Percy Mackaye

Arise! Renew with nobler dreams The faith we name our own; The bugle calls to vaster schemes Which God hath dreamed alone. To save a planet's liberties He joineth now our hands, With brothers fighting over-seas Among the ruin'd lands.

To arms! To arms for freedom, And end the reign of czars! America, America Unfurls her flaming stars! To arms! To arms for freedom, And end the reign of czars! America, America Unfurls her flaming stars!
